

Corporate Asset Data Management

This course provides training and implementation on the concepts and techniques relating to Data Management, and the benefits these will bring to an organization.

Our trainer is a highly experienced professional Business Analyst with international experience in improving Data Management Structures. Further details available on enquiry.

Description

MANAGING DATA AS A CORPORATE ASSET

This course provides training and implementation on the concepts and techniques relating to Data Management, and the benefits these will bring to an organization.

Our trainer is a highly experienced professional Business Analyst with international experience in improving Data Management Structures. Further details available on enquiry.

Syllabus

Session 1

- Definition of Data Management
- Data Strategy in Context
- Data Challenges
- Keys to Managing Enterprise Data
- Data Problems
- Balancing Local and Enterprise Requirements

Session 2

- Reconciling Opposites
- Embracing Speed and Agility
- Staying a step ahead
- Data Governance: Embedding Data Quality into Processes
- Data Governance: Pitfalls
- Data Management Portfolio

Learning Outcomes

By attending this course, participants will become familiar with the latest concepts and techniques relating to Data Management, understand the benefits these will bring to their organisation and be in a position to implement the concepts and techniques in their organisation.

Participants and Requirements

Best suited to senior and middle management in business, operation management and organisation administrators

Certificate

Attendance Certificate

Course Duration

7 hours